

On the hunt for details in downtown Orangeville

Discover the details that make downtown Orangeville a vibrant and unique destination. Your quest is to discover details about public art, local businesses, and historical features during this 30-minute stroll along Broadway, Orangeville's main street.

Route: Your quest starts near Town Hall at 87 Broadway. Follow the instructions in the clues to wind your way west along Broadway, Orangeville's main street, to just past First Street. Cross to the south side of Broadway and make your way back. All clues can be found in the order listed.

Things to know:

- The route is all outdoors so make sure to dress for the weather.
- You will not need to enter any businesses to find any of the answers so it can be done safely at any time.
- The entire route travels along sidewalks, making it an easy stroll for all participants.
- Make sure to share your fun with us on Facebook or Instagram @orangevilletourism.ca

Hunt online!

This quest can also be completed using the free Goose Chase app. Get the app, register a team, and use game code 1BXJBZ or search for Orangeville.

Clue #1: Where it all began Orange Lawrence, the Town's founder stands proudly in front of Town Hall, welcoming you to downtown Orangeville. He stands over 7 feet tall and is ready to work, with plans in hand and sleeves rolled up. How many buttons are on his vest? Answer: _____	Clue #2: Name that animal Take a look around the windows of Orangeville's historic Town Hall to find evidence that the building once functioned as a market area. What animal is keeping watch? Answer: _____	Clue #3: Music in the Park Alexandra Park is located just north of Town Hall and is home to Orangeville's war memorials. Public art pieces are also featured including a tree sculpture entitled The Musicians that plays tribute to the Blues &amp; Jazz Festival. Name one of the two instruments being played. Answer: _____	Clue #4: Written in the stars The window of Suzanne Gardner Flowers is filled with enough lush greenery to liven up every visit to downtown Orangeville. But it's the store's simple logo that you're looking for. Look up and count the points. Answer: _____
Clue #5: Falling leaves Reader's Choice is a used book store that has been open in downtown Orangeville for over 20 years. The storefront showcases more than just the impressive selection of books. What type of leaves are featured on the façade? Answer: _____	Clue #6: Find it in the façade The stunning historic façade of Sproule's Emporium is hard to miss. The family-owned shop has been part of Orangeville's business community for over 40 years. Today, the store offers a variety of fair trade products, but a different type of business used to be located here. What was it? Answer: _____	Clue #7: Perk up Mochaberry is a cozy café that serves up in-house roasted coffee, delicious food, and the best in service and quality. On the cafe's sign, you'll find both beans and berries, representing the ingredients that go into their signature brews. How many individual red berries can you see? Answer: _____	Clue #8: Meet the Moose Standing outside Dragonfly Arts on Broadway, you'll find a sculpture of a moose. Installed in 2005, the unique sculpture is made out of a recycled oil tank. Strike a pose with the moose and while you're here, make sure to admire the window display of Canadian artwork. Share your photo @orangevilletourism
Clue #9: It's all in the name Rustik Local Bistro offers unique menu items featuring local ingredients. Why not enjoy a beverage with your meal? What important bar tending tool is shown in the bistro's logo? Answer: _____	Clue #10: Through the stained glass Natural Choice is a wellness shop located in a beautiful, historic building. Take a look at the stained glass window and find one of the two elements featured in the centre circle. Answer: _____ Cross to the south side of Broadway to continue.	Clue #11: Way back when Moguls in Mocean is a lifestyle and outdoor shop, located in an historic building known as the Jackson Block. On the side of the building, find a plaque bearing the building's namesake. What job did Thomas Jackson do way back in 1875? Answer: _____	Clue #12: A story to tell Outside the Orangeville Public Library, a tree sculpture remembers local storyteller Marilyn Doekes. What story is Marilyn reading to people passing by? Answer: _____
Clue #13: Timely thank you The marble clock standing in the middle of Broadway weighs about 907 kg and was originally installed on the Town's former post office in 1936. Find a plaque with a timely thank you. How many donors contributed to the clock restoration project? Answer: _____	Clue #14: Buns in the oven At Son of a Chef Bakery, you'll enjoy daily specials along with fresh bread, cakes, and baked goods. Before you dig in, take a look at the sign. How many stalks of wheat do you see? Answer: _____	Clue #15: Hear me roar There is a lion loose on Broadway! Find the elusive tree sculpture and take a photo showing how you can roar like a lion. Share your photo @orangevilletourism	Clue #16: Find the farmer Another tree sculpture entitled Sesquicentennial was carved for the Town's 150th birthday in 2013. The large 12-foot sculpture depicts local landmarks and includes a nod to the agricultural roots of the Town. Can you find the farmer? The colour of his pants will conclude your search. Answer: _____